YOGI RAMSURATKUMAR

THE GODCHILD, TIRUVANNAMALAI

Fortunate are those who come across a Gnani in their very life-time. Still more fortunate are those who recognise him for what he is and benefit from his divine association. One such Brahma Gnani is Yogi Ramsuratkumar, in whom thousands of people have found solace, succor and shanti in life.

Born on December 1, 1918, Yogi Ramsuratkumar was a hidden saint who lived as a beggar on the streets of Tiruvannamalai, Tamil Nadu. In His quest for a Guru and the Truth, He travelled to South India where He met His three Gurus : Sri Aurobindo, Ramana Maharishi and Papa Ramdas. Papa Ramdas initiated him into "Om Sri Ram Jai Ram Jai Jai Ram" and said, "Go and repeat it day and night, all the twenty four hours." In the course of seven days and seven nights, Ramsuratkumar made the great exodus from the Kingdom of man to the Kingdom of God. Ramsuratkumar became YOGI RAMSURATKUMAR, a savior of ignorant souls with a mission greater than his own liberation. Today, His Name, YOGI RAMSURATKUMAR provides help, guidance and protection to all those who chant it and is a sanctuary of peace, love and joy.

Ma Devaki, whom Sri Yogiji called His eternal slave, served Him personally for seven years until His Mahasamadhi in 2001. Mataji has continued her seva at His Ashram in Tiruvannamalai for the past twenty two years. Mataji is here with us today, to share her experiences with the Great Yogi. She brings alive His teachings which are very relevant to modern life and accentuates the glory of chanting His Name in a way that touches and transforms lives.

Bhagwan Shri
Yogi Ramsuratkumar

There can be no greater service to humanity than to preserve the Vedas
