Sthala darshan

1. Dasavathara temple - Place in Puri kshetra where Sri Jayadevar stayed and sang the Ashtapadhis. Situated very close to Sri Jagannatha temple.
2. Alarnāth - 20kms from Puri.

Every year before the annual ratha yatra in Puri kshetra, and after the snāna yatra of Sri Jagannathar, there is no darshan of the Lord for 2 weeks. Unable to have darshan of Sri Jagannathar, Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu in great viraha thāpa, went to Alarnāth temple where Bhagavan appeared before him as sangu chakra gadhadari (with conch, chakra and mace). He used to stay there in Alarnāth kshetra for those two weeks. When Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu was lying on a stone bench there with great bagavath viraha, the stone melted because of his sparsha. We can have darshan of that stone with the imprint of his divine form, called prema silā there.

(Those who wish to visit these sthalas, can organise transport and visit during the morning session of Ashtapadhi bhajans)
